(PROOF OF CLAIMS PROCEDURE)

IN THE COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF ALBERTA

IN THE MATTER OF THE TRUSTEESHIP OF JOHN
FRANCIS QUINN, A DEPENDENT ADULT

AND IN THE MATTER OF THE JUDICATURE ACT
(ALBERTA) AND THE APPOINTMENT OF A RECEIVER
AND MANAGER OF THE PROPERTY, ASSETS AND UNDERTAKING OF JOHN FRANCIS QUINN

PROOF OF CLAIMS PROCEDURE

1. A Notice to Creditors and a Proof of Claim form substantially in the forms attached hereto as Schedules "1" and "2" will be sent by Hardie & Kelly Inc. (the "Receiver") to all known creditors or potential creditors (<sup>31</sup>Claimants) of John Francis Quinn ("Quinn") on or before Friday, August 24th, 2007 in the manner provided in paragraph ____ of the Order granted by Justice _____ of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta herein on August ____, 2007. In addition, a Notice to Creditors substantially in the same form as Schedule "3" shall be published by the Receiver once on or before September 30th, 2007 in each of the Calgary Herald and a local daily newspaper selected by the Receiver in Bellingham, Washington.
2. The Proof of Claims Procedure is intended for any person with any claims of any kind or nature whatsoever, secured or unsecured, whether liquidated, unliquidated, contingent or otherwise, against Quinn arising on or before April 23, 2007, being the date on which the Receiver was appointed, or as a result of Quinn's ongoing care and living expenses, or the ongoing management and preservation of his assets after that date (collectively "Claims").
3. All Claims arising on or before April 23rd, 2007 shall be proven as of that date. If a claim arises after April 23rd, 2007 as a result of Quinn's ongoing care and living expenses, or the ongoing management and preservation of his assets, then such claim shall be proven as of the date of the action giving rise to such claim. All Claims shall be made in Canadian dollars or their equivalent, as more particularly set out in Schedule "1".

4. Each Claimant must complete and sign a Proof of Claim substantially in the form attached as Schedule "2" in accordance with the instructions contained therein and in the Notice to Creditors, and deliver the signed and completed Proof of Claim to the Receiver by prepaid registered or certified mail, courier delivery, personal service or facsimile on or before 5:00 p.m. Mountain Standard Time ("M.S.T.") on Friday, November 16th, 2007 (the "Claims Bar Date"), subject to any further order of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta.
5. The Receiver, in consultation with Michael Cone, Trustee for John Francis Quinn, a dependent adult, or Dawn Quinn, Guardian of the person of John Francis Quinn, will have until Friday, November 30th, 2007, subject to any further order of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, to review and either allow or disallow all or any portion of a claim, and to send written notification of any disallowance to a Claimant ("Notice of Disallowance"). If either Michael Cone, Trustee for John Francis Quinn, a dependent adult, or Dawn Quinn, Guardian of the person of John Francis Quinn, disagree with the Receiver's decision to allow a claim, then either of them may issue a Notice of Disallowance indicating the reason for their disagreement.
6. A Claimant will have a period of 15 days after service of the Notice of Disallowance within which to deliver written notice of its objection to any part of the Notice of Disallowance ("Notice of Objection") to the Receiver. The Notice of Objection must be delivered to the Receiver in the manner set out in the Notice to Creditors. If the parties cannot otherwise agree on a resolution of the Notice of Objection, then within 30 days after being advised by the Receiver in writing that the objection cannot be resolved by agreement, the Claimant must file and serve on legal counsel for the Receiver and on legal counsel for Michael Cone and Dawn Quinn, by courier delivery, personal service or facsimile, a Notice of Motion filed in this action to determine the validity of that portion of the Claimant's claim which was disallowed. The said Notice of Motion shall be initially returnable in the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta within 15 days of the date of service of the Notice of Motion.
7. Subject to any further order of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta and paragraph 8 below, the claims of all those Claimants not proving their claims in the manner set out herein and in the Schedules attached hereto shall be extinguished and barred, and all such Claimants shall be prohibited from making or enforcing a claim against Quinn and shall not be entitled to any further notice of or participation in any distributions made by the Receiver to proven creditors of Quinn.

8. The Receiver is authorized to use reasonable discretion as to the adequacy of the manner in which a Proof of Claim is completed and executed and may, where it is satisfied a claim has been adequately proven, waive strict compliance with the requirements of this Proof of Claims Procedure.
9. If Quinn subsequently becomes bankrupt, the Claims Bar Date shall be of no effect in any subsequent bankruptcy proceedings or in relation to any dividends paid on claims made by any person in such proceedings.

SCHEDULE "1"

NOTICE TO CREDITORS OF JOHN FRANCIS QUINN

On April 23rd, 2007, the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta (the "Court") appointed Hardie & Kelly Inc. (the "Receiver") of Calgary, Alberta, as Receiver and Manager of all of the current and future assets, undertakings and property of John Francis Quinn, of whatsoever nature and kind and wherever located.

On August ____, 2007, the Court directed the Receiver to solicit proofs of claim from all known or potential creditors of John Francis Quinn for the purpose of determining claims which will participate in the receivership proceedings. The Proof of Claims Procedure is intended for any person with any claims of any kind or nature whatsoever against John Francis Quinn arising on or before April 23rd, 2007, or arising after April 23rd, 2007 as a result of the ongoing care and living expenses of Mr. Quinn or the ongoing management and preservation of his assets (collectively "Claims"), whether secured or unsecured and whether liquidated, unliquidated, contingent or otherwise. Any party having a claim against John Francis Quinn is required to file a Proof of Claim with the Receiver in the prescribed form attached in order to receive further notice of and participate in any voting or distributions associated with the receivership proceedings.

A Claims Bar Date of 5:00 p.m. Mountain Standard Time ("M.S.T.") on Friday, November 16th, 2007 has been set by the Court. Subject to any further order of the Court, all claims received by the Receiver or postmarked after the Claims Bar Date will be extinguished and barred and will not receive further notice of or participate in any distribution in the receivership proceedings. All claims of any nature, whether unsecured, secured, liquidated, unliquidated, contingent or otherwise, against John Francis Quinn must be made on or before the Claims Bar Date as follows:

1. Any claimant who chooses to file a Proof of Claim for claims arising on or before April 23rd, 2007 is required to provide whatever supporting documentation it may have, such as bills of lading, shipping, receipts or transportation invoices in relation to goods and/or services provided, in support of its claim as at that date, in Canadian dollars equivalent to the currency in which the claim arose;
2. If a claim arises after April 23rd, 2007, as a result of the ongoing care and living expenses of Mr. Quinn or the ongoing management and preservation of his assets, then such claim shall be proven as of the date of the action giving rise to such claim, in Canadian dollars equivalent to the currency in which the claim arose;
3. For purposes of calculating the Canadian dollar equivalent for any claim, the Bank of Canada noon spot exchange rate on August 10th, 2007 (which is $1.0536) shall be used;
4. All claims shall be reduced by the amount of any subsequent payment thereon, the application of any volume or other discounts in respect thereof, and any other subsequent credits or set-offs;
5. All claims must be reduced for equipment and/or other assets voluntarily released or returned by the John Francis Quinn to a claimant;
6. Where there is a credit or set-off against all or a portion of amounts owing by John Francis Quinn, full particulars of the credit or set-off must be included;

All claims must be made in the prescribed "Proof of Claim" form together with the required supporting documentation and be received by the Receiver on or before the Claims Bar Date, namely 5:00 p.m. M.S.T. on Friday, November 16th, 2007.

The Receiver will, on or before Friday, November 30th, 2007, review each Proof of Claim filed and determine whether to allow or disallow each claim in whole or in part. Where a claim is disallowed in whole or in part, the Receiver will issue a Notice of Disallowance to the Claimant indicating the reasons for its decision. If either Michael Cone or Dawn Quinn, the Trustee and Guardian for Mr. Quinn, a dependent adult, respectively, disagrees with the Receiver's decision to allow a claim, in whole or in part, then either one of them may issue a Notice of Disallowance indicating the reasons for their disagreement.

Where a claimant objects to a disallowance, the claimant must deliver a notice in writing ("Notice of Objection") to the Receiver by courier delivery, personal service or facsimile within 15 days of receipt of the Notice of Disallowance. If the parties cannot otherwise agree, then within 30 days after being advised by the Receiver in writing that the objection cannot be resolved by agreement, the claimant must file and serve a Notice of Motion in the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, Action No. 0701-04154, on legal counsel for the Receiver (Miles Davison LLP, Barristers and Solicitors, #1600, 205 - 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 2V7, Attention: Susan L.
