

NOTICE TO CREDITORS OF JOHN FRANCIS QUINN

On April 23, 2007, the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta (the "Court") appointed Hardie & Kelly Inc. of Calgary, Alberta, as Receiver and Manager (the "Receiver") of all of the current and future assets, undertakings and property of John Francis Quinn, of whatsoever nature and kind and wherever located.

On August 22, 2007, the Court directed the Receiver to solicit proofs of claim from all known or potential creditors of John Francis Quinn for the purpose of determining claims which will participate in the receivership proceedings. The Proof of Claims Procedure is intended for any person with any claims of any kind or nature whatsoever against John Francis Quinn arising on or before April 23, 2007, or arising after April 23, 2007 as a result of the ongoing care and living expenses of Mr. Quinn or the ongoing management and preservation of his assets (collectively "Claims"), whether secured or unsecured and whether liquidated, unliquidated, contingent or otherwise. Any party having a claim against John Francis Quinn is required to file a Proof of Claim with the Receiver in the prescribed form enclosed in order to receive further notice of and participate in any voting or distributions associated with the receivership proceedings.

A Claims Bar Date of 5:00 p.m. Mountain Standard Time ("M.S.T.") on Friday, November 16, 2007 has been set by the Court. Subject to any further order of the Court, all claims received by the Receiver or postmarked after the Claims Bar Date will be extinguished and barred and will not receive further notice of or participate in any distribution in the receivership proceedings. All claims of any nature, whether unsecured, secured, liquidated, unliquidated, contingent or otherwise, against John Francis Quinn must be made on or before the Claims Bar Date as follows:

1. Any claimant who chooses to file a Proof of Claim for claims arising on or before April 23, 2007 is required to provide whatever supporting documentation it may have, such as bills of lading, shipping, receipts or transportation invoices in relation to goods and/or services provided, in support of its claim as at that date, in Canadian dollars equivalent to the currency in which the claim arose;
2. If a claim arises after April 23, 2007, as a result of the ongoing care and living expenses of Mr. Quinn or the ongoing management and preservation of his assets, then such claim shall be proven as of the date of the action giving rise to such claim, in Canadian dollars equivalent to the currency in which the claim arose;
3. For purposes of calculating the Canadian dollar equivalent for any claim, the Bank of Canada noon spot exchange rate on August 10, 2007 (which is $1.0536) shall be used;
4. All claims shall be reduced by the amount of any subsequent payment thereon, the application of any volume or other discounts in respect thereof, and any other subsequent credits or set-offs;
5. All claims must be reduced for equipment and/or other assets voluntarily released or returned by the John Francis Quinn to a claimant;
6. Where there is a credit or set-off against all or a portion of amounts owing by John Francis Quinn, full particulars of the credit or set-off must be included;

All claims must be made in the prescribed "Proof of Claim" form together with the required supporting documentation and be received by the Receiver on or before the Claims Bar Date, namely 5:00 p.m. M.S.T. on Friday, November 16, 2007.

The Receiver will, on or before Friday, November 30, 2007, review each Proof of Claim filed and determine whether to allow or disallow each claim in whole or in part. Where a claim is disallowed in whole or in part, the Receiver will issue a Notice of Disallowance to the Claimant indicating the reasons for its decision. If either Michael Cone or Dawn Quinn, the Trustee and Guardian for Mr. Quinn, a dependent adult, respectively, disagrees with the Receiver's decision to allow a claim, in whole or in part, then either one of them may issue a Notice of Disallowance indicating the reasons for their disagreement.

(See Reverse)

Where a claimant objects to a disallowance, the claimant must deliver a notice in writing ("Notice of Objection") to the Receiver by courier delivery, personal service or facsimile within 15 days of receipt of the Notice of Disallowance. If the parties cannot otherwise agree, then within 30 days after being advised by the Receiver in writing that the objection cannot be resolved by agreement, the claimant must file and serve a Notice of Motion in the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta, Action No. 0701-04154, on legal counsel for the Receiver (Miles Davison LLP, Barristers and Solicitors, #1600, 205 - 5th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta, T2P 2V7, Attention: Susan L. Robinson Burns, Q.C.) and legal counsel for Michael Cone and Dawn T. Quinn (Underwood Cherry Gilholme, Barristers and Solicitors, #228, 4935 - 40 Avenue N.W., Calgary, Alberta, T3A 2N1, Attention: Leanne S. Cherry). The Notice of Motion must be returnable within 15 days of service of the Notice of Motion for the determination of the claim in dispute.

If a Claimant has any questions regarding the Proof of Claims Procedure, please contact the court-appointed Receiver at the address below.

Additional Proof of Claim forms can be found on the website of Hardie & Kelly Inc. at www.insolvency.net or by contacting the Receiver at the telephone and fax numbers indicated below.
